

Heathcotes wins Festival food work

Caterer Heathcotes Outside has won the contract to supply catering at the Manchester International Festival Pavilion, which will be open to the public for the duration of the event between 3 and 19 July. The pavilion, designed by Manchester architects' firm Stephenson Bell, will this year be situated in Albert Square as the main hub of the festival programme.